Science and Math Camps for Girls

Nominate your best & brightest 7th grade girls to attend Tech Trek!

A week-long Science, Technology, Engineering, & Mathematics (STEM) camp designed to create excitement, interest, and confidence in young women. Tech Trek is a program of the American Association of University Women (AAUW) that is spreading across the nation! It will be held for the third time on the Southwestern Oklahoma State University (SWOSU) campus in Weatherford and for the first time on the University of Tulsa (TU) campus in Tulsa in June 2015 (dates to be determined).

A nominated 7th grade girl must:

- Be excited by math or science
- Be motivated to learn
- Have at least a “B” average (is not necessarily the top student)
- Have limited access to programs such as these
- Be likely to benefit from this experience, both academically and personally

Personally, the student should:

- Make positive choices for herself, inside and outside of class
- Demonstrate responsibility, honesty, and accountability
- Exhibit self-control and have no serious discipline issues
- Show respect for and cooperate with teachers and students
- Be willing to try new and challenging tasks

Academically, the student should:

- Be able to follow directions
- Show persistence in task completion
- Participate in class discussions
- Work well in group situations and be willing to help other students
- Be interested in learning and experiencing new things, especially math or science

The time line for camper selection is:

- Mid-February: Teachers and counselors identify and nominate 7th grade girls*
 - Mid-March: Nominated girls submit application
 - Mid-April: Campers are selected by AAUW members and notified
 - Early May: Campers register and pay a camp reservation fee of $50 (non-refundable)
 - June 2015: Tech Trek Camp
- Girls may only attend one camp (not both)
